Icy surfaces developing, with a little snow in places.

What to expect

- Some injuries from slips and falls on icy surfaces
- Probably some icy patches on some untreated roads, pavements and cycle paths

Further details

Ice is likely to form on untreated surfaces during Monday night, especially where showers move well inland. Some of the showers will be wintry and could produce 2 to 5 cm lying snow above 250 metres, mostly over the Pennines and North York Moors where up to 10 cm is possible.

Elsewhere, most places will see little or no snow, but a slight covering of a centimetre or so is possible in a few places.
